

The E tū scorecard

E tū is campaigning for a worker-friendly government that supports the key policies that will make a difference in workers' lives. Here's where the parties stand.

E tū policy priority	Fair Pay Agreements	Pay Equity	Living Wage	Repeal the Employment Leave Act	Reverse Bad Laws
Labour	YES	YES	YES	YES	YES
Green Party	YES	YES	YES	YES	YES
Te Pāti Māori	YES	YES	YES	YES	YES
Opportunity	NO	YES	MOSTLY*	NO	NO
NZ First	NO	NO	MOSTLY	NO	NO
National	NO	NO	NO	NO	NO
ACT	NO	NO	NO	NO	NO

*Opportunity agreed to most parts of the Living Wage pledge but refused to commit to prioritising the Living Wage in coalition negotiations.

NZ First agreed to most parts of the Living Wage pledge but it is unclear if they would prioritise the Living Wage in coalition negotiations.

GET OUT AND VOTE

Voting closes 7pm, Saturday 7 November 2026

YOUR VOTE

How to vote

- Find a voting place at www.vote.nz/votingplaces. You can vote at any of them.
- Take your EasyVote card if you have it. You don't need ID.
- Tick one party (left) and one candidate (right).
- Fold it and put it in the ballot box.

BRING OTHERS ALONG

Help others vote

- Talk to your workmates. Ask if they plan to vote and when.
- Get your whānau involved. Talk about voting at home.
- Offer a hand. A lift, help finding a voting place, or childcare.
- Follow up. "Have you made your plan to vote?"

Scan to find a voting place
www.vote.nz/votingplaces

Need help to vote? A friend, whānau member or voting place staff can help you read or mark your voting paper. Questions? Call 0800 36 76 56.

VOTE FOR A WORKER-FRIENDLY GOVERNMENT

www.etu.nz

Authorised by Rachel Mackintosh, 646 Great South Road, Ellerslie, Auckland